Hawai'i Pono'i is the title of the Hawai'i National Anthem written by King Kalākaua in 1874. Literally translated "Hawai'is own," Hawai'i Pono'i connects us to the history of the Islands and the heritage of its Indigenous people, a heritage that enriches us all. The Hawai'i Pono'i Coalition was formed to educate those who choose to live in and visit the islands about Hawai'is true history, and the culture that makes Hawai'i a place like no other.
